Ephesians 5.18-33

God has so bound us to each other, that no man ought to avoid subjection. And where love reigns, there is a mutual servitude. I do not except even kings and governors, for they rule that they may serve. Therefore it is very right that he should exhort all to be subject to each other. - John Calvin, Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians, Colossians, p 204

The husband would probably have been seen as somewhat restricted or compromised by the advice given here. - Ben Witherington III, The Letters to Philemon, the Colossians and the Ephesians, p 321

You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave -just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. - Matthew 20.25-28, ©NIV

Philippians 2.1-11
