

Title: UT Sunday, Feb 25
Dave Neuhausel

Matthew 26.36-46

Page 696

“The letters of the name of God in Hebrew....are infrequently pronounced Yahweh. But in truth they are unutterable... This word {YHWH} is the sound of breathing. “The holiest name in the world, the Name of the Creator, is the sound of your own breathing. That these letter are unpronounceable is no accident. Just as it is no accident that they are also the root letter of the Hebrew verb ‘to be’ .... God’s name is the name of being itself.” - Rabbi Lawrence Kushner

Title: WP Sunday, Feb 25
Amanda Lum

Matthew 26.36-46

Page 696

“The letters of the name of God in Hebrew....are infrequently pronounced Yahweh. But in truth they are unutterable... This word {YHWH} is the sound of breathing. “The holiest name in the world, the Name of the Creator, is the sound of your own breathing. That these letter are unpronounceable is no accident. Just as it is no accident that they are also the root letter of the Hebrew verb ‘to be’ .... God’s name is the name of being itself.” - Rabbi Lawrence Kushner

Jesus, let me feel Your presence