

Denver Community Church Counseling Resources

We are pleased to provide a list of therapists who are qualified to treat and support individuals, children, adolescents, couples and families. Each therapist is uniquely equipped and trained to work with specific concerns. While we are able to provide this list, we at DCC make no guarantee regarding the effectiveness of these counselors for any particular client. However, we do believe in the value of therapy and the ability of trained therapists to support those in need. All of these therapists share a faith perspective and are comfortable working with anxiety, depression, grief/loss and life transitions. Their particular specialties are listed as well. For additional support or referral help, please email soppliger@denverchurch.org.
